

Crowd Guard

Smart Crowd Density System, which measures the number of people in specific areas in real time to detect changes in the number of people in the area.

Furthermore, people entering and exiting an area are measured in places, such as malls or other crowded public places that are full of people.

It is very practical and helps in controlling the number of people in crowded areas.

By Khaled Abdel-rahman
and Omar Ibrahim
Two 15 y/o from Cairo, Egypt